WEBSITE BIO

Anne Maghas is a serial entrepreneur and angel investor with experience co-founding and scaling three companies across varied industries. As an investor, she is passionate about supporting female founders and founders of color. Anne is also an active volunteer with SCORE, where she mentors local entrepreneurs as they navigate the early stages of building their businesses. Her experience as an entrepreneur, investor, and mentor brings valuable practical insight to the ACA Angel University experience. Through her commitment to sharing knowledge and supporting the next generation of entrepreneurs, Anne offers Angel University students the opportunity to learn from a seasoned practitioner who brings both investment experience and a strong dedication to founder development.
