WEBSITE BIO

Layla Lumpkin is the founder of HTX Venture Legal Counsel and a seasoned business adviser and transactional attorney with more than 13 years of experience in complex corporate legal matters. She specializes in venture capital financings, small to lower middle-market mergers and acquisitions, and joint venture and partnership arrangements, advising high-growth companies and investors. Through her deep experience working at the intersection of law, investment, and entrepreneurship, Layla brings valuable expertise and practical perspective to the ACA Angel University experience. Her insight into the legal and strategic considerations that shape investments and growing businesses provides Angel University students with the opportunity to learn from an experienced professional serving both companies and investors.
